- B. Subject to the limitations in Article IV, Section 4.B any member in good standing may run for any elected position.

Section 7: Vacancies

- A. If the office of the President is vacated for any reason before the end of his or her term, the First Vice-president will automatically assume that office until a replacement is appointed pursuant to Article IV, Section 7.B and if the First Vicepresident is not available for any reason or declines to serve, the Second Vicepresident will assume the office.
- B. If any position of the Board of Trustees becomes vacant for any reason, the Board may appoint a replacement until that position is filled at the next general election.

Section 8: Removal

- A. Any member of the Board of Trustees who fails to timely pay annual dues in any calendar year will be considered to have tendered his or her resignation.
- B. Members of the Board of Trustees who miss four consecutive regular meetings of the membership or three consecutive Board of Trustee meetings called by the President will be considered an uninterested party. Upon such designation, the President may request the Board of Trustees to remove such person from the Board. The Board of Trustees may remove such person as a Trustee and appoint a member as a Trustee until the next general election.
- C. The Board of Trustees may remove a Trustee or officer from his or her office for cause if, in the judgment of the Board of Trustees, such person's actions or statements can reasonably be expected to damage or reflect detrimentally on the reputation of the JGSC. The Board of Trustees may also revoke the membership of a removed Trustee.

Section 9: Board of Trustee Meetings

- A. The Board of Trustees will meet at least once each quarter at a time and place determined by the President.
 - 1. Written notice must be given to each Trustee at least five days before all such meetings and include a proposed agenda.
 - 2. For special Board of Trustee meetings called in accordance with Article III, Section 3, the President must attempt to schedule a meeting that is convenient to Board of Trustees, and must inform each Trustee of the purpose of the meeting.
- B. Meetings of the Board of Trustees may be held through any communications equipment, including, but not limited to, telephone or video conferencing equipment, if all voting participants have reliable access to such equipment. Participation in such electronic meetings constitutes presence at the meeting.
- C. In lieu of holding a meeting, the Board of Trustees may take action by unanimous written consent of its voting members.

Section 10: Quorum

- A. Board of Trustees: A majority of the voting members of the Board of Trustees constitutes a quorum for the purpose of conducting business.
- B. Business of the Board of Trustees will be transacted by majority vote of those attending the meeting at which a quorum is present.

- B. A Board of Trustee member cannot be dismissed from his or her post without the majority consent of the Board of Trustees for cause.
- C. Each member of the Board of Trustees may have access to the JGSC membership directory.

ARTICLE VI: ELECTION OF THE BOARD OF TRUSTEES Section 1: Nominating Committee

- A. At the regular meeting of the membership in October of each year, nominations for Trustees and officers will open, and a nominating committee will be announced by the President which will be formed of at least three members in good standing of the JGSC.
- B. The nominating committee will accept the names of candidates nominated by members and who themselves are members in good standing. Anyone being nominated must have consented to being nominated. The nominating committee may also solicit nominees from the general membership whether or not a person has already been nominated by a member for a specific office. The nominations must be completed no later than the November regular meeting of the membership.

1. In the specific instance where no nominee is found for President or First Vice president, but two or more have been nominated for one of those offices, the runner-up, with his or her consent, will fill the uncontested office.
 2. If any office remains vacant following the elections, the newly elected Board of Trustees may fill the vacancy as it sees fit.
- C. The nominating committee will present its slate of candidates to the membership meeting at the November regular meeting.
- D. Upon receipt of the nominating committee's slate, the Board of Trustees will distribute the names and qualifications of the candidates to all members eligible to vote at the annual meeting. This will be accomplished by email, where possible, or first class mail where not, and will be done at least ten days before to the December annual meeting. However, such distribution is not required for uncontested positions.

Section 2: Elections

- A. Elections will occur at the annual meeting of the membership in December. Each member of the JGSC in good standing and present may vote by ballot.
- B. Election of officers and trustees will be by secret written ballot for any contested position. For uncontested positions, the President at the meeting may declare the uncontested nominee to have been elected.
- C. The ballots will be counted by two members of the general membership chosen by the current President at the time of the voting. Neither member may be a nominee for any position in the current election.
- D. The winners of the elections will assume their respective offices on January 1st following the December election.

ARTICLE VII: COMMITTEES

Section 1: Purpose

All committees shall conduct business that is compatible with the purpose of JGSC, with oversight and direction of the President and the Board of Trustees.

Section 2: Program and Membership Committees

The program committee and the membership committee shall be headed by the appropriate Vice-president and may, but need not, include other members appointed to the committee by the appropriate vice-president and approved by the President.

- A. Program - The purpose of the program committee is to plan the programs for each regular meeting of the membership. Members of the program committee will use their best efforts to

- plan programs six months in advance to the extent possible, if not already planned at the time of election;
 - contact and arrange for speakers to present educational and informative material to the membership; and
 - provide contact information of the speakers to the Treasurer and President before the date of the speaker's presentation.
- B. Membership - The purpose of the membership committee is to recruit new members, to retain existing members, and to coordinate with the Treasurer. From time to time, but not less frequently than every two years, the committee shall prepare a directory of all JGSC members including postal addresses, email addresses, telephone numbers, and research interests.

ARTICLE VIII: FUNDS

All funds of JGSC must be deposited in financial accounts in the name of the Jewish Genealogy Society of Cleveland. Other than the President and the Treasurer, only persons authorized by the Board of Trustees may make deposits to or withdrawals from JGSC accounts.

ARTICLE IX: INDEMNIFICATION

A member of the Board of Trustees shall be indemnified by the JGSC against all reasonable costs, expenses, and legal fees and expenses paid or incurred in connection with any action, suit, or proceeding to which such person might be or becomes a party due to his or her duties on behalf of JGSC. The Board of Trustees may not approve or pay indemnification without receiving an opinion from legal counsel regarding the propriety of doing so.

ARTICLE X: COMMUNICATIONS WITH MEMBERSHIP

For the purposes of communication set forth in these Bylaws, notices will be sent to the last known mailing address or email address on record with the JGSC, per the member's indicated preferred manner of notification.

ARTICLE XI: AMENDMENTS TO THE BYLAWS

- A. These bylaws may be altered, amended, or repealed, and new Bylaws may be adopted by a majority of the members who are eligible to vote and present at any regular meeting or at any special meeting at which such action has been scheduled.
- B. Whether the intent to modify originates with the Board of Trustees or the membership, as provided in Art. XI, Section C, members must be given written notice at least seven days before the meeting at which the action will be taken, specifying the intention to alter, amend, repeal, or to adopt new Bylaws at said meeting.

- C. Members may submit proposals for amendments to the Board of Trustees. Such proposals must be in writing and must be signed by no less than ten members of JGSC. The proposal must be sent to the President for submission to the Board of Trustees by first class mail or email. The President will call a special meeting of the Board of Trustees to review the proposal if a Board of Trustees meeting is not scheduled within one month of the receipt of the amendment proposal. The proposal shall be sent to members in writing and a meeting scheduled to vote upon such proposal in accordance with Art. XI, Section B. The Board of Trustees may include its endorsement of, or opposition to, such proposal. Voting shall take place at the first general membership meeting to be held more than one month after the Board of Trustees meeting.
